Hi Bev,

Erin is filling in for Chantal today and has found major omissions in her program. See attached.

Erin is on again tomorrow and finding it difficult to follow or know what she is supposed to be doing or linking to.

You may need to pay a visit and sit with her.

I do find her great with the kids and parents, but she is unorganised and all over the show with program and room organisation.

Let me know if you want me to follow up with anything.

regards
